Report/Announcements:

Hello, friends!

The H&I Subcommittee met today (on 29-Oct-23) with a record-breaking NINE participants!

We hosted our commitment at the women's pod at the Cheshire County House of Corrections (CCHOC) on Friday, October 13th. There were seven attendees and the format for the presentation was a reading from the Basic Text (Just For Today chapter). Thank you to Felicia B. and Sam F. for their service at the commitment! Our next presentation will be held on Friday, November 10th.

While at the commitment this month, we did receive some feedback from a few of the attendees that a previous meeting was loosely structured. We discussed this feedback, and the situation as a whole, during our sub-committee meeting today. We learned that part of the disorganization was due to not locating the meeting format in a timely manner. We will be taking steps to ensure that each H&I member has access to the meeting format electronically so they can review it as needed. This is an opportunity for us to learn and improve our presentations.

Additionally, the H&I sub-committee procured 10 Basic Texts and 10 Just For Today books to donate to the CCHOC facility. We plan to donate them this month. Thank you to Russ S. (Literature Chairperson) for fulfilling our out so quickly!

Further communication with the CCHOC occurred this past month and we are planning to host our first meeting for the Men's pod in November. We are waiting to confirm a date! We still need to determine another orientation date and time for additional H&I committee members/possible speakers. We will be communicating with the facility about that this week. Right now, there are three people interested in attending the orientation.

During our meeting today, further discussion was held regarding an H&I presentation at the Marble Valley Regional Corrections Facility in Rutland, VT. We will contact them again this week to understand their needs and their visitor orientation.

There was also discussion surrounding the Brattleboro Retreat's interest in hosting an H&I presentation. Sam F. (H&I member) will be contacting the Retreat to learn more.
