Report/Announcements:

Things are going as normal. We are starting the discussion with the organization that hosts us and their guidelines, in hopes to begin meeting again at some point face-to-face.

Not a whole lot to report. Meeting regulars are attending meetings via Zoom. And we have had people attending from outside our area, which is one of the great things about Zoom.

In loving service,

Marc

We are continuing to meet on Zoom with about 12 addicts present consistently. We planned to start meeting in person last week but had been given bad information that the church was allowing people in. The church committee was supposed to meet last week about this and I will check with them tomorrow to see what the decision was. When we do start meeting in person again we will continue Zooming the meeting for the foreseeable future. We did not have a group conscience meeting this month so I am not bringing a vote with me for vice chair position and there was no donation for area voted on. The group did meet informally last weekend at one of the member's backyard for a cookout. It was great to be together again!

ILS,

Tim

Report/Announcements:

Had service meeting this past Thursday. Will be making a donation to area. The Church where we host our meetings reached out to one of members to say that we are welcome to meet there, with all of the CDC guidelines. For now the group is going to remain meeting virtually.

Our meetings smaller than usual. Carrying a strong NA message and are always looking for new members.

In loving service,

Chad
