The meeting is going steady. We are still meeting on Zoom. A couple of attempts to find a new host facility and those attempts have ended in the same way. These facilities are indicating that their insurance highly recommend that they not have in-person meetings. So, the search continues.

We are doing well, and HG members are doing what they need to do to keep the meeting happening.

All will be well!

Karl

Good Afternoon Family,

In from the Storm group continues to meet in person and on the Zoom platform. Our format is structured to have a speaker once a month and topic discussions.

Our meeting is going strong and growing in attendance. We have had a room full of addicts the past several weeks and are still seeing new people show up on Zoom too. There has been much sharing and carrying our message, often times by newer members.

The YANA Center has been a great location for us, and we are hopeful that we will continue to attract new folks to us.

In loving service,
Josh

Good Afternoon Family,

Our meetings are being attended regularly by regulars. We have had a couple of people come in and out; generally, ranges between 4 – 8 people at the meetings.

Everything is going well. We have had discussions and concerns about going live or hybrid and there have been a few concerns from some of the older members of our group about going live at all. Therefore, we are tabling it for now and will continue to discuss it each month and monitor what is going on in the public in terms of flu and COVID spiking. We are just playing it by ear right now. Everyone seems relatively comfortable with the Zoom format and safety is not a concern for us at this point.

We are all doing well and continuing to meet regularly.

In loving service,

Marc

Good Afternoon Family,

We continue to meet virtually every Monday night on Zoom from 7:00 p.m. to 8:00 p.m. with a little bit of visiting after and before if it works out.

We have been contacted by the church and the church likes what a member has done in terms of organizing our literature and stuff. Since they like what we have done, they are in process of drafting a contract to enable us to meet in person. As soon as the contract is received, we will meet as a group and discuss all the ins and outs of making it happen.

We hope to be back in hybrid situation, especially as the church has Wi-Fi and has agreed to let us use their internet. More will be revealed.

In loving service,

Rocket.

We are still holding our hybrid Zoom/in person meetings. The location for the physical meetings is at a member's house and closed to the general public.

Zoom attendance has been down a bit compared to what it was a couple months ago. We believe this may be due to poor sound quality. We have ordered a condensing microphone in hopes that this will help.

We have an opportunity to open a live meeting at a new location. They would require everyone present to sign a log sheet with name and phone number. One member is uncomfortable with this stating that it violates anonymity. We would like to hear what others have to say about this during "Cares and Concerns" today.

We will be mailing in a donation of $89 this month.

In loving service,

Tim C.

Meeting is fairing well. Group attendance has been steady 15 – 20 members with 2 – 3 newcomers a week.

Our host facility (Upper Valley Turning Point) has informed us that we will be able to access facility starting 10/29/2020 but with only a max capacity of 20 addicts while others may join the meeting via Zoom. Members are concerned with having to turn addicts away once max capacity is met.

Would appreciate input from other groups and members.

I have taken the Alt position until a GSR steps in.

We have had super steady attendance – and had 10 addicts just at our group conscience!

There has been a PayPal account set up for the group, and someone is monitoring that account.

Zoom is working for us and we will be continuing with this format.

In loving service,

Tammy

Hi Everyone,

There has been talk – the church we normally meet at in person reached out to a fellow homegroup member and upped the allowance of groups that are allowed to meet there to 15 people.

We had a group conscience last week and we talked about it. Things seemed like they were headed in the direction of going hybrid but another homegroup member went to the church and determined that the Wi-Fi connection would be the thing that will hold us back. The Wi-Fi was great on the top part of the church but as soon as we stepped down into the basement part of the church where we usually meet, it cut out completely.

So, we are exercising other options at this point and tabled any changes to our meeting. We will be Zoom for the next month for sure. We are going to do some research and development and find a solution hopefully.

We will update you next month.

In loving service,

Chad

Happy Area Sunday –

All is well at You Are Here.

Our host facility is still not open, so we are continuing to meet solely via Zoom.

We had a celebration last night – our very own Cecil celebrated 36 years in recovery. Laughs, memories and a virtual medallion – with a real medallion and key tag soon arriving via USPS.

We continue to read from Living Clean, which has been well-received. Come visit – would love to see your faces!

As always, and with everything going on, more will be revealed.

In loving service,

Cheryl
