Good Afternoon,

Attendance is going steady. We had plans on trying to find a place to meet in person but that has been put on hold due to the rise in COVID cases.

The group members are still doing what we need to do to keep the meeting open. We are definitely carrying the message. We have an anniversary coming up!

Grateful to be of service,

Karl C.

Good Afternoon Family,

We are still meeting on the zoom platform and in person. The format is structured by having a speaker once a month and having topic discussions on the other weeks.

We are seeing lower attendance this past month but that is typical during the holidays. We would like to take a moment to thank the YANA center for continuing to support this and other groups by allowing us to stay open.

In loving service,

Josh

Attendance to the meeting has been steadily dwindling. 3 – 4 people. No one has been signing onto zoom.

I am worried as I might be getting more hours at work and may not be able to attend this meeting. The meeting is struggling, and I am bummed about the whole thing.

As long as I am able, I will be there!

In loving service,

Donnie B.

Good Afternoon Family,

Our group has had discussions about meeting in person and it has been tabled as it is just not practical at this time.

We continue to meet every Thursday. Attendance is between 5 – 6; it fluctuates – but we have some newer consistent members that show up which is great.

We do have a donation and are continuing to take in 7th tradition – paying rent and sending donations down the service structure.

In loving service,

Chad
