Cares and Concerns

Public Relations –

Meeting list supplement!! Sample contact and information card! It has a QR code that will send you directly to the website (it also has the website address, too) and also has space for phone numbers – in 1/3 the size of a regular piece of paper. The mock-up has been uploaded as part of the minutes.

If you/your groups are interested in receiving these, or a limited number of printed meeting lists, please make your requests via email to info@gmana.org.

Further discussion also yielded the idea of putting these information cards on our website, and these could be printable as well, just like we have a printable version (formatted for printing) of our meeting list available on the website. PR will confirm with the other committee members about getting these up on the website so they can be printed by us.

Campout –

Campout Committee is trying to get ready for registration. However, if we put the flyer on the website, our telephone numbers are removed, due to ASC policy of not putting personal information on the website. We are wondering, in lieu of everything going on, if Campout could put telephone numbers on the flyer and have it posted like that on the website?

- Per policy, the only phone number that can be posted on the GMA NA website is the helpline number.
- Can phone numbers be put up on the FB page? Campout is trying to get information to people to help them register.
- Addicts could leave a message on the phonenumber, and PR could then forward the voice mail to the Campout. This causes a delay, getting connected to the person that wants to get information to register for the campout.
- Campout is trying to figure out the best way to do all of this and have everyone treated fairly and equally.
- There will be no scholarships this year.
- Everyone, including babies, have to be registered this year!
- Campout wants to use the Zoom account next week – 11:00 a.m. Based on the fact that there were no conflicts today with meetings at 11:00 a.m., Campout was given the go-ahead to meet next week at 11 using their regular log-in information.
- There are on-line registration services, but because Campout is running on a such limited budget, Campout does not want to commit NA funds to a service like this.

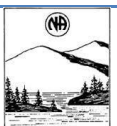

Literature –

Talked about the idea of having a social media site for the literature subcommittee – the idea being that there could be pictures posted of what we have in stock. Also talked about the idea of having another section on our area website where literature could be ordered. Questions came up about the ‘challenge’ of getting stuff updated on the Area website, who would be responsible to admin/monitor a FB page if that were decided as the way to move forward? If the chair of the subcommittee has a preference, that should be considered. The idea is not really to sell off of the FB page, but more to showcase what is available through our fellowship. Who would create the page? Who would monitor the page – e.g. shutting down offensive comments?

GMANA Site Updates –

Policy Chair has the ability to so some updates to the website – and will explore if they have all of the information necessary to make updates beyond the policy documents. Kinda like an Admin Learning Day.

Treasurer

Received another letter from an inmate in the Northeast Correctional Complex in St. Johnsbury. A copy of the letter has been scanned and forwarded to CVANA.org. If anyone is interested in corresponding with this young man, please reach out the Treasurer at treasury@gmana.org

ASC closed at 3:04 p.m.
