Hello Family,

The In from the Storm group has been doing well this past month with between 5 – 13 addicts in attendance each week.

We are still using the Zoom option at this time, while we are also meeting in person. We do encourage folks to come in person.

Our facility has lifted the mask mandate but they are still asking unvaccinated folks to wear masks.

Our group has been reading out of the Living Clean book the past few months, but we would still welcome speakers if anyone is interested.

We would like to make a donation of $20 this month, but will need some guidance on how best to do that. We have paid off our rent and have the ability to make a donation.

In loving service,

Josh R.

We are still hybrid, meeting Friday nights at 7 p.m. at the Turning Point Club in Brattleboro. We have 4 – 10 attendees on any given Friday evening. We are doing celebrations and going out to dinner every Friday night after the meeting, which has been really nice.

We need to figure out our money situation. Pretty sure we have money to give. That will be happening soon hopefully.

We have speakers and read from the literature.

And we are also going to give books to Campout. YAY!

In loving service,

Abby

I am reaching to Laurie at Headrest to see about in person meetings.

Not a whole lot new to report, which knowing how change can be, is a good thing!

Please come see us (in person, zoom) on Sunday mornings. Most of us are bright and chipper and all of us are killing it carrying the message.
