Good afternoon,

Attendance has been ebb and flow. Some weeks we have a solid 15 and then at a recent meeting, we had 3 addicts in attendance. Same goes for home group members. We could definitely use addict support, and home group members.

We are reformatting our meeting – more of a literature rotation meeting now rather than all speakers. One week is a speaker, and the rest of the weeks are chairperson's choice. We have overhauled the format ☺

In loving service,

Sam

Grateful to be here. Grateful to be of service.

All service positions are filled and we had a great turnout for group conscience. Attendance is between 20 – 30 addicts per week, even on Christmas Eve.

Still doing the ticket system and we have added a greeter ☺

Coffee is hot and we have bakers on hand, so there are plenty of snacks.

The message is DEFINITELY BEING DELIVERED.

In loving service,
Karl

Good afternoon,

The We Can group has a varied format. We meet in person and could certainly benefit from addict support.

We have had an increase in attendance from some out-of-state-ers.

Report/Announcements:

Good afternoon,

We have had a steady attendance of 8-12 addicts. This is a chairperson's choice formatted meeting.

We voted this month to move the service meeting from after the regular meeting to before the meeting – starting at 6:00 p.m.

We held an extremely successful Annual Holiday Party/Speaker Jam on December 11th with approximately 60 – 70 addicts in attendance.

We are already planning for next year's event which will be held on December 10th, 2022. Hope you have your Save the Date magnet that were on the tables.

Thank you to everyone who came, followed the request to mask up, contributed goodies, and helped with set-up and clean-up. Our hearts were full when we left the Community House that night.

ILS,

Alisa B.
