Report/Announcements:

Hey there,

The Brattleboro Ad-Hoc Committee had a flyer hanging day on January 21st and have had several newcomers over the past month.

We discussed as a group and with PR about creating a flyer that is accessible for people who don't have a phone.

The Ad-Hoc is interested in facilitating a group activity within the coming months. We plan on having another Flyer hanging day in March but we will set a date at the meeting next week.

In Loving Service,

Hey Family,

Campout met today with 8 addicts in attendance. We discussed that we will start announcing that we are accepting T-shirt designs for the 2023 Campout. We ask that designs have:

Back to Basics XXXVIII
Aug 17-20, 2023
GMAANA

We request all designs be submitted by June 20, 2023. Designs can be submitted by emailing them to campout@gmana.org, or handed in to any campout subcommittee member. We will be voting on the designs at our June campout meeting. The person who made the winning design will receive a free campout package for this year's campout.

We also have been discussing our Policy and are getting a lot accomplished to that end.

In Loving Service,

Tammy R.

Report/Announcements:

Good Afternoon Family,

The H&I Subcommittee met today (29-Jan-2023) with five attendees. We are still hosting our commitment in the women's pod at the Cheshire County House of Corrections (CCHOC). One presentation was held this past month and one was cancelled due to a COVID lockdown at the facility. We have two more meetings scheduled for this month and have officially voted in two panel leaders (Jamie G. and Sarah H.) to host these meetings. Thank you to Jamie and Sarah for their willingness and dedication to serve. We still need to communicate with the facility regarding a date to have orientation for other potential panel leaders, panel members and potential speakers. We are seeking to add two more female panel leaders that live closer to the Keene, NH area to help balance the women's commitment at the CCHOC. More will be revealed on that subject.

We have tried to contact the Live Free Recovery House in Keene to determine potential times/days to start hosting an H&I presentation there again. No one has responded to us yet.

We are still in need of support. We plan to utilize the GMANA Facebook page to announce H&I information and connect with potential speakers. Be on the lookout for this in the near future!

We also discussed the 'Reaching Out' NA newsletter that NA World Services is mailing to all registered NA Areas. We are hoping we can obtain a copy of this newsletter that we believe may have been mailed to our Area PO Box.

In Loving Service,

H&I Subcommittee

Report/Announcements:

Good afternoon,

Sales for the month of January totaled $234.95 cost of additional Basic Text $155.52 net deposit $79.43.

We had a mix-up with the last order from NAWS. They mistakenly sent us Basic Text instead of SPAD books. They rectified the problem with selling the Basic Text at a 20% discount. The SPAD books were shipped express.

I propose we sell the overstocked Basic Text for $11 while supply lasts.

Plenty of stock on hand.

If you'd like to place an order, look for contact information in the chat.

Grateful to Serve,

Russ S.

Report/Announcements:

The Public Relations Subcommittee met with 5 addicts present. We discussed formats for the posters the Brattleboro ad hoc committee are using to create support and awareness for NA in that vicinity.

Martin M. sent an email to info@gmana.org regarding access to the Zoom link for his group. It appears that when the Monday Night Mechanics group has a group conscience, and that conscience runs long, it interferes with the access for the That's Life group. We refer this issue to Bruce so maybe Jim, now that Jim is chairperson.

Our web administrator has researched Go Daddy website provider to get some basic costs. There is much work to be done, but approximate costs look like $250 per year.

Beginning Balance	$814.00
January Expenses	$ 13.04
Balance Remaining	$800.96

In service,
Tex

Report/Announcements:

Dear NA Family,

I attended the Multi Regional Learning Event held last month in Portland, Maine. This was a weekend long event focused on workshopping the Conference Agenda Report (C.A.R.) with focus on the 25 motions contained within it. I will be holding three workshops to go over the process, do my best to explain pros and cons of each motion, cover the voting process, etc. These sessions are to occur immediately following GMASC as listed below and will be limited to one hour sessions.

January Session – to review motions 1-11

February Session – to review motions 12-20

March Session - to review motions 21-25, WSC Literature / IDT Survey, and Tally Sheet (Voting Sheet)

Voting for the C.A.R. is to be brought to the World Service Conference this April by the ABCD Regional Delegate Sandy M. so votes should be sent to me either by phone or email at 781.460.9272 or metanoya1993@gmail.com .

Also, I am reporting my slack-ability for not attending the ABCD Regional Service Committee the first Saturday of this month. This only occurred due to my miscalculation of time change from Eastern Standard time to Central Standard Time.

In Loving Service,

Bruce B.
